Neff Prepares Many Gifts for Saturday Party

Invites Public to Formal Dedication of Carpet
Station

There's going to be more than "free air" at Bill Neff's Carpet service station Saturday, when he celebrates the formal dedication of the 100 percent carpet station at the corner of Arlington and Carson streets.

We're going to give every customer who buys five gallons of gasoline Saturday, a free spring oiling job. We have equipped our carpet station with a special spring oiling gun which penetrates through the leaves of the spring and takes the squeaks out of the "noisiest car," said W. J. Neff.

There will also be free balloons for the children who come with their parents and pencils for the adults, according to the announcement. Mr. Neff states that he has made arrangements with a good photograph studio to supply every customer with a deluxe 10x14 photograph of any member of the family as soon as ten dollars or more has been spent in carpet products.
"We've been planning this party for weeks and we know it will be well worth your time to drop around Saturday," said Mr. Neff.
